Helping People Make Gospel Connections

Use the Three Trees Diagram to help you to understand how to walk in a manner worthy of the gospel (1 Cor. 10:31). Please fill out the form answering the following questions:

- 1 Heat - Describe the situation/ trial you are facing. What happened? Who was involved?
- 2 Bad Fruit - How did you respond? What did you feel, think, say, do? What does Scripture say about these responses?
- 3 Bad Root - What did you want, fear, believe? What lies are you believing about God, yourself and others? What does Scripture say about these desires, fears and beliefs?
- 4 Consequences - What are the consequences?
- 5 The Cross - How does the reality of Christ's finished work effect your circumstances and your heart? Will you turn from the lies you have practiced and believe? Will you believe the truth of the Gospel?
- 6 Good Root - What SHOULD you desire, love, fear, believe in this circumstance? What truths should you believe about God, yourself, and others? What does Scripture encourage you to desire, fear, and believe?
- 7 Good Fruit - What SHOULD you feel, think say or do if you are loving God more than anything else.
- 8 Consequences - What are the consequences?
