

Growing in Grace – Discussion of Marriage (7)

---

Resolving Conflict

1. As you consider life to this point, do you confess sin openly to God and to others? What are ways you hide, cover up, and seek to preserve a righteous image?
2. In what ways are you a forgiving person? How do you hold grudges and crave personal justice?
3. How do you wisely discern between times to cover sin and times to confront sin?
4. Evaluate your attitude toward service, especially when no one notices or cares..
5. What interferes with your cheerful service of others? What attitudes, activities, and desires of your heart get in the way?
6. When life gets difficult, what type of speech flows from your lips? Do you tend to talk a lot or not much at all?
7. In what way are you an ambassador for Christ, someone whose words speak for Him and about Him in this world? How do your words represent Him in your relationships?
8. In what ways might you be tempted to speak unkindly? Do you tend to run to other people to gripe and complain when you are offended?
9. What would help you have a more loving approach?